The King's Visit To Italy

LONDON, April 9.—Sir Murdock MacDonald, member of the House of Commons for Inverness, replying to protests against the proposed visit of the King and Queen to the Pope this year, said it was a matter that ought to be left to the judgment of Their Majesties. "We cannot forget that His Majesty has many millions of Catholic subjects and if he feels he would like to make a courtesy call on the titular head of the Catholic Church it would be wrong to suggest that he should not do so," said Sir Murdock.

Gift For France

KINGSTON, April 9.—A gift from the Government of France of a beautiful statue entitled Pax in Bisques de Sevres, has been received at the Royal Military College, Kingston, and will be unveiled shortly with appropriate ceremonies. It is a recognition by the French Republic of the outstanding record of the Canadian Military College, over ninety per cent of whose graduates served in the late war and forty-five attained general officers rank.

A Wage Increase

NEW YORK, April 9.—The United States Steel Corporation to-day announced a wage increase of eleven per cent, affecting more than one hundred and fifty thousand men. This increase will bring wages to approximately forty cents an hour.

Fighter Is Dead

PHILADELPHIA, April 9.—Arthur Chambers, once light-weight champion of the world and the hero of the long-east battle with bareknuckles in the history of the squared circle, died Saturday night at a local hospital. He was seventy-five years old. Chambers won the lightweight title from Johnny Clark, fighting one hundred and thirty six rounds, the longest bout ever staged. It was at Chippewa Falls, Ontario, and fought under old London rules when a knock down counted as a round. Clarke died recently.

CHAPTER XXII.

"In that event the Laguna Grande Lumber Company wouldn't be any worse off than it is at present. The principal loser, as I view the situation, would be Miss Shirley Summer, who has the misfortune to be loaded up with Cardigan bonds. And as for Bryce Cardigan—well, that young man would certainly know he'd been through a fight."

"I wonder if he'll fight to the last, Uncle Seth."

"Why, I believe he will," Pennington replied soberly.

"I'd love to see you beat him."

"Shirley! Why, my dear, you're growing ferocious." Her uncle's tones were laden with bantion, but his countenance could not conceal the pleasure her last remark had given him.

"Why not? I have something at stake, have I not?"

"Then you really want me to smash him?" The Colonel's voice proclaimed his incredulity.

"You got me into the fight by buying Cardigan bonds for me," she replied meaningly, "and I look to you to save the investment as much of it as possible; for certainly, if it should develop that the Cardigans are the real promoters of the N.C.O., to permit them to go another half-million dollars into debt on a forlorn hope of saving a company already top-heavy with indebtedness wouldn't savour of common business sense. Would it?"

The Colonel rose hastily, came around the table, and kissed her paternally. "My dear," he murmured, "you're such a comfort to me. Upon my word, you are."

"I'm so glad you have explained the situation to me, Uncle Seth."

"I would have explained it long ago had I not cherished a sneaking suspicion that—er—well, that despite everything, young Cardigan might—er—influence you against your better judgment and—er—mine."

"You silly man!"

He shrugged. "One must figure every angle of a possible situation, my dear, and I should hesitate to start something with the Cardigans, and save you, because of foolish sentiment call off my dogs."

Shirley thrust out her adorable chin aggressively. "Sick 'em, Tigie!" she answered. "Shake 'em up, boy!"

"You bet I'll shake 'em up," the Colonel declared joyously. He paused with a morsel of food in his fork and waved the fork at her aggressively. "You stimulate me into activity, Shirley. My mind has been singularly dull of late; I have worried unnecessarily, but now that I know you are with me, I am inspired. I'll tell you how we'll fix this new railroad. If it exhibits signs of being dangerous, I'll smote the table. We'll sew 'em up tighter than a new button-hole."

"Do tell me how," she pleaded eagerly.

"I'll block them on their franchise to run over the city streets of Sequoia."

"How?"

"By making the mayor and the city council see things my way," he answered dryly. "Furthermore, in order to enter Sequoia, the N.C.O. will have to cross the tracks of the Laguna Grande Lumber Company's line on Water Street—make a jump-crossing—and I'll enjoin them and hold them up in the courts till the cows come home."

"Uncle Seth, you're a wizard."

"Well, at least I'm no slouch at looking after my own interests—and yours Shirley. In the midst of peace we should be prepared for war. You've met Mayor Poundstone and his lady haven't you?"

"I had tea at her home last week."

"Good news. Suppose you invite her and Poundstone here for dinner some night this week. Just a quiet

PUBLIC NOTICE

Under an Act representing the St. John's General Hospital (6 George V., Chapter XIX), and with the approval of the Governor-in-Council, the Board of Governors have fixed and prescribed the following scale of fees to be levied from and paid by all persons who occupy beds or undergo treatment at the Hospital:

Scale of Fees.

Every person receiving treatment in the St. John's General Hospital shall pay fees according to the following scales:—

PERSONS ADMITTED TO THE PUBLIC WARDS, $1.00 PER DAY.
PERSONS OCCUPYING PRIVATE ROOMS, $10.00 PER WEEK IN ADDITION TO THE DAILY FEE OF $1.00.

TO COVER THE COST OF DRESSINGS, ANAESTHETICS, AND FOR THE USE OF THE OPERATING ROOM, PATIENTS UNDERGOING OPERATIONS SHALL PAY A FEE OF $10.00 IN ADDITION TO THE FEES SPECIFIED ABOVE.

Every applicant for admission to the Hospital must bring or forward to the Superintendent of the Hospital, certificate signed by a duly registered physician that such applicant is a proper subject for Hospital treatment.

Under the provisions of the General Hospital Act, 1915, all patients who are unable to pay fees shall be required to bring with them a certificate of their inability to pay, which shall be signed by the Resident Relieving Officer, or where there is no such Officer by a Justice of the Peace, a Clergyman or other responsible persons.

The fees of such patients thereupon payable by the Commissioner of Public Charity, by virtue of the said Act. By order of the Board of Governors.

The Liver Is the Road to Health

If the liver is right the whole system is right. Carter's Little Liver Pills will gently awaken your sluggish, clogged-up liver and relieve constipation, stomach trouble, inactive bowels, loss of appetite, sick headache and dizziness. Purely vegetable. You need them.

Little family dinner, Shirley, and after dinner you can take Mrs. Poundstone upstairs out on his attribute toward the N.C.O. They haven't asked for a franchise yet; at least, the Sentinel hasn't printed a word about it; but when they do, of course the franchise will be advertised for sale to the highest bidder. Naturally, I don't want to bid against them; they might run the price up on me and leave me with a franchise on my hands—something I do not want, because I have no use for the blamed thing myself. I feel certain, however, I can find some less expensive means of keeping them out of it—say by convincing Poundstone and a majority of the city council that the N.C.O. is not such a public asset as its promoters claim for it. Hence I think it wise to sound the situation out in advance, don't you, my dear?"

She nodded. "I shall attend to the matter, Uncle Seth."

Five minutes after dinner was over, Shirley joined her uncle in the library and announced that His Honour, the Mayor, and Mrs. Poundstone, would be delighted to dine with them on the following Thursday night.

CHAPTER XXIV

To return to Bryce Cardigan.

Having completed his preliminary plans to build the N.C.O., Bryce had returned to Sequoia, prepared to sit quietly on the side-lines and watch his prepared henchman Buck Ogilvy go into action. The more Bryce considered that young man's fitness for the position he occupied, the more satisfied did he become with his decision. While he had not seen in touch with Ogilvy for several years, he had known him intimately at Princeton.

In his last year at College Ogilvy's father, a well-known railroad magnate, had come a disastrous cropper in the stock market, thus throwing Buck upon his own resources and cutting short his college career—which was probably the very best thing that could happen to his father's son. For a brief period—perhaps five minutes—Buck had staggered under the blow; then his tremendous optimism had asserted itself, and while he packed his trunk, he had planned for the future. As to how that future had developed, the reader will have gleaned some slight idea from the information imparted in his letter to Bryce Cardigan, already quoted. In a word, Mr. Ogilvy had had his ups and downs.

Ogilvy's return to Sequoia following his three-weeks tour in search of rights of way for the N.C.O. was heralded by a visit from him to Bryce Cardigan at the latter's office. As he breasted the counter in the general office, Moira McTavish left her desk and came over to see what the visitor desired.

"I should like to see Mr. Bryce Cardigan," Buck began in crisp businesslike accents. He was fumbling in his card case and did not look up until about to hand his card to Moira—when his mouth flew half open, the while he started at her with consummate frankness. The girl's glance met his momentarily, then was lowered modestly; she took the card and carried it to Bryce.

"Hum-m-m!" Bryce grunted. "That noisy fellow Ogilvy, eh?"

"His clothes are simply wonderful—and so is his voice. He's very refined. But he's carrotty red and has freckled hands, Mr. Bryce."

Bryce rose and sauntered into the general office.

"At your service, Mr. Ogilvy. Please come in."

"Thank you so much, sir." He followed Bryce to the latter's private office, closed the door carefully behind him, and stood with his broad back against it.

"Buck, are you losing your mind?" Bryce demanded.

"Losing it? I should say not. I've just lost it."

"I believe you. If you were quite sane, you wouldn't run the risk of being seen entering my office."

SUMMER TIME

London, April 8—Summer time in Great Britain will begin April 22, and continue until September 16.

HUNDREDS OF SPECTRAL
FACES ROUND CENOTAPH

New York, April 7—Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, in a lecture on Friday night, brought gasps and cries from an audience in Carnegie Hall, when he flashed on the screen a picture, which he said, was taken during the two minutes silence period before the Cenotaph of the unknown soldier in London. Over the heads of the crowd the picture showed hundreds of spectral faces, faces that Sir Arthur said were soldiers dead. He explained that a group of mediums had been planted in the crowd, and they had drawn the dead to the ceremony. The photograph was taken by Mrs. Dean, an English Medium. He also showed a cast of a hand dipped in a bucket of paraffin and then plunged into cold water. The cast was obtained at a seance conducted under the most rigorous conditions. The spirit having been materialized, they had it plunge its hand into paraffin, as a proof to the outside world of its existence, he said. Sir Arthur called attention to the unbroken outline of the cast as a proof that no human hand could have been withdrawn without damaging the thin tissue of the paraffin cast. He said it was one of the best proofs of the existence of materialized spirits.

BONAR LAW UNEASY

London, Apr. 8—Troublesome days are in prospect for Bonar Law's tranquility government on the re-opening of parliament which will re-assemble to-morrow. The session will not conclude until August, with a brief rest at Whitsuntide. Even supporters of the government do not deny that the cabinet with the delicate Ruhr situation hanging like the sword of Damocles over their heads and faced with home budget difficulties and awkward housing and agriculture problems, are in uncomfortable seats.

BOTTLED ALE GONE DOWN

Vineyard Haven, April 8—The steamer John Dwight, of New York, carrying a cargo of bottled ale, believed to be intended for that port, went down in Vineyard Sound yesterday with the loss of eight lives. That was the number of bodies recovered to-day by fishermen in Vineyard Sound. The waters are reported strewn with barrels of bottled ale. It is believed the John Dwight had obtained the cargo from some other ship and was resuming her voyage to New York when damaged by collision with another vessel.

Given under the Great Seal of our aforesaid Colony of Newfoundland.

WITNESS Our trusty and well-beloved Sir WILLIAM LAMOND ALLERDYCE, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and Over the Colony of Newfoundland, at St. John's, in Our said Colony, this Seventh day of April, A. D. 1923, and in the Thirtieth year of Our Reign.

By His Excellency's Command,
R. A. SUIRES,
Colonial Secretary.

Imperial Conference Will Be Held In October

LONDON, April 9.—Imperial Conference of premiers similar to that held in June 1921 will sit in London concurrently with the Imperial Economic Conference beginning October first this year. It was announced in the Commons to-day.

Destroyed Canal Lock

ESSEN, April 9.—The explosion of a time bomb destroyed the lock of the Dortmund-Ems Canal near here to-day, effectually blocking the passage way and seriously interfering with inland waterway traffic. It is said to be the most serious cases of sabotage so far reported.

CHAMELEON ARCHIBALD

Does Frank Archibald imagine for a moment that Hr. Grace takes him seriously?

If he does, he is due for a rude awakening. In 1919, the District of Hr. Grace sent this unstable youth to the House of Assembly to represent it under the leadership of Sir R. A. Squires. It is a safe bet that but for the immense strength and popularity of the party, under whose banner he fought, no less than the contempt and abhorrence in which the party opposing the Squires Liberal Party was held, Archibald could never have induced the people of Hr. Grace to place their confidence in him to such an extent as to make him their representative.

His behaviour in the House confirms the general idea that he was a "hair-brain" from the very beginning, for during the first session he cut loose and made an ass of himself on more than one occasion. He could not be trusted to speak on any question, no matter how unimportant, for the reason that once he got on his feet he lost his balance and was likely to say anything before he sat down.

In the second session, when Crosbie became his friend and used him as a cat's-paw for his dirty work, Archibald remained in the Government ranks till it was found he could be of no particular use to his Tory masters there, and then, one evening when a large gathering of spectators was in the House, this would-be-sensationalist, announcing in tragic tones that he could no longer stay with the Government, threw his "bag and baggage" into the middle of the floor of the Assembly and followed it with the swagger of a man who was really going to become an "independent." Mr. Archibald's bit of stage-play fooled nobody. One could almost see the string extending to him from Sir John Crosbie's seat, so obvious was it that he was carrying out the behests of the man who was using him as a willing tool.

Since the last session of the House Archibald has been pulling off stunts in Hr. Grace that would make the angels weep. He has been bearing out his reputation as a chameleon and if he imagines that his despicable bluff has fooled even the most credulous of his townspeople, he is more bombastically egotistical than we had imagined, which is saying a great deal.

Archibald has not fooled the people who elected him as a member of the Squires Party in 1919; he has merely disgusted them and if his sparring partner and fellow-bombast, Mr. Bennett needed a good heavy stone to sink him in Hr. Grace, he has that stone now about his neck in the form of Mr. Francis Chameleon Archibald.

WISDOM.

Hr. Grace, April 6th 1923.

CANADA WILL SACRIFICE HER MERCHANT MARINE

OTTAWA, April 9.—Twenty-seven of the sixty-four vessels comprising the Canadian Government Merchant Marine fleet are to be offered for sale. They are of the smaller type, more suitable for coastal trade and not adapted for economical use in Canadian canals. The following are the names with prefix "Canadian": Dash, Sealer, Miner, Adventurer, Sower, Pathfinder, Engineer, Trader, Sailer, Coaster, Beaver, Farmer, Gunner, Harvester, Observer, Logger, Rover, Signaller, Warrior, Trapper, Hunter, Raider, Aviator, Rancher, Settler; also the T. J. Drummond, J. A. McKee and the Sheba.

Bonar Law Ill

LONDON, April 9.—Premier Bonar Law returned to the House to-day but was unable to carry on conversation when attempting to answer questions and was forced to hand a copy of his speech to Stanley Baldwin for delivery. Throat trouble is bothering Bonar Law and while not serious it revives interest in his rumored retirement owing to ill health.

MONTREAL, April 9.—Ten thousand dollar silk robberies occurred over the week-end from two uptown stores.

HAVRE, April 9.—The French line decided yesterday to cancel the sailing of the steamer France for New York because the firemen persisted in the attitude protesting against the deduction tax on wages due seven of their number. All the firemen were dismissed.

DUBLIN, April 9.—In a South Kerry battle between Republicans and Nationalists over the execution by the former of condemned workmen, a prisoner escaped in the melee while the captors took refuge in nearby houses. The Nationalists stormed them, killing four.

Harbor Grace Give: Bennett Cool Reception

HR. GRACE, April 10.—(By Telephone)—John R. Bennett, the Tory candidate for this District arrived here from St. John's by yesterday afternoon's train and was met at the station by Frank Archibald. Seeing that nobody present knew the "visitor from town," Mr. Archibald told the crowd who he was and after some minutes of awkward silence a faint cheer was raised. It was plain, however, that Mr. Bennett could create no enthusiasm. A meeting was held in the British Hall at night, when a fairly large gathering, including most of the children in town attended. Mr. Bennett made a considerable time repeating what we are tired reading in the Tory papers. He said nothing new except that he was now supporting the Humber Proposition which nobody believed.

The Liberal Committee met at their rooms last night as usual and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. The Campaign is going ahead full swing and Piccott, Simmons and Calpin are surer than ever of victory in the town since Bennett's appearance created such an unfavorable impression.

Bernhardt

Sarah Bernhardt has spoken her last lines and the curtain has rung down on a line of exceeding fullness, at an age when most actresses are a pathetic memory Bernhardt was a living force. There have been greater artists on the boards; time alone can judge of that. Yet there has never been an actress with more energy and greater genius to refresh and revitalize her abounding talents year after year. There was a time perhaps, in years before the war when that indomitable will seemed to flag and that marvellous creative art that had been mellowed by age seemed to be filmed with the relentless tarnish of time. When a miracle happened. Her old combative spirit that had defied managers, piqued fellow artists, fought incessantly with servants, was reinvigorated by the consuming zeal of her patriotism. She made no claim of art or age to shun the ugliness of war, since, for her art was but the essence of life. Her Phedre which had remained a scarifying perfection was by the zeal of her patriotism transformed once more into a majestic harmony. Francesca, which had shrunk to a pale if faultless shadow, once again took on the form and substance of a living woman. There was a new note in her matchless voice and the rapturous applause which greeted her during the war years was no formal homage to fame, no mechanical tribute to tradition. She seemed to burn with her hatred for the Boches. The fuel of her anger heaped a new meaning on the fury of her invocation.

The greatest actress of the age has passed away. No longer shall we see that gesture that was the perfection of suavity, the posture that was grace itself. We shall not again hear that rhythmic chant of her voice or that marvellous hammering out of her words like pieces of sharp steel. Her acting was the very antithesis of the classic fashion, the still periwig-and-pannier manner in which the Racine she interpreted so magnificently saw his plays portrayed. Bernhardt was the great romantic heroine of the Third Republic, the "fine fleur" of the French spirit in its poignancy, its pursuit of the exquisite, its love of glowing colors and sharp relief. Better still, she was a superb exemplar of that spirit of indomitable will, of high and gay courage, refined in the furnace of war, that made the Third Republic a pattern for the nations of the world.

ANGLESEA, England, April 10.—Liberal Combination won the parliamentary bye-election in this constituency over Labor and Conservative candidates. Sir R. J. James was successful candidate in general election. He came second to General Sir Thomas Owen, Independent.

CARDIFF, April 9.—The striking miners in Rhonda Coal Fields held a meeting last Saturday night and settled the differences. Work therefore resumed for forty-six thousand men.

DUSSELDORF, April 9.—The French have confiscated eighty billion marks in unrefined German paper money which they found Friday at the printing plant in Mulheim of the General Anzeiger. At the same time Belgian troops seized two million marks in paper money.

ROME, April 9.—Princess Yolande, eldest daughter of King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helena, of Italy, was married this morning to Count Calvi di Bergolo, captain of cavalry, who was decorated for bravery in the war.

THE DUKE'S WEDDING PRESENTS

WHEN ROYALTY RETURNS GIFTS

Royalties who are about to marry frequently have to decline to receive some of the wedding presents which are sent to them.

It is always the case when a member of the Royal Family becomes engaged that he (or she) receives gifts from people whom the engaged Royalty does not personally know. Usually these gifts are sent in the hope that they will bring them invitations to the Royal wedding. But it is an absolute rule never to retain such gifts, and they are always promptly returned to the donors.

Last year Princess Mary returned more than fifty wedding gifts, and already the Duke of York has returned a number of present sent to him by people whom he does not know. No doubt many more will meet the same fate before His Royal Highness's wedding on April 26th.

Valuables Which are Never Used. Sometimes tradespeople send valuable gifts in the hope that they will obtain the Royal patronage.

A well-known firm of piano makers sent a magnificent instrument to King Edward on the occasion of his marriage. The piano was put in a room at Marlborough House with some other gifts that were to be returned to the donors after the wedding.

But Queen Alexandra happened to try the piano one day and took a great liking to it. The late King therefore decided to retain the instrument, but a cheque for three hundred and fifty guineas, the price of the piano, was sent to the makers.

Royalties who are engaged to be married always receive a number of wedding presents from anonymous donors. In cases where the gifts are of considerable value they are put carefully away and are not used until the names of the donors are ascertained and the royal recipient is in a position to judge whether he will retain them.

Often the names of the donors are never discovered. Both the King and Queen and Queen Alexandra still have valuables which they received as wedding gifts, but these have never been used because the names of the donors were not discovered.

The late Mrs. Gladstone's wedding gifts to Queen Mary were a Bible and shawl. They arrived without anything to indicate from whom they came. They were put away, but a few days later a letter arrived from Mrs. Gladstone praying the Princess's acceptance of the gifts. The Princess at once wrote to Mrs. Gladstone expressing her thanks for the presents, which, by the way, are now among Her Majesty's most treasured possessions.

Gifts of little intrinsic value sent obviously by poor people are often received by members of the Royal Family. These gifts are specially prized by the recipient and often valued more than very costly presents. Among Queen Alexandra's most treasured possessions is a little pin cushion that was a wedding present to Her Majesty from three little girls in the East-end.

When a Prince or Princess of the Royal House becomes engaged the presents usually begin to arrive about a month after the announcement of the engagement. A careful list is made of the gifts sent to the engaged couple, which is subsequently printed, and copies of the list are sent to various people.

The presents after the wedding are nowadays usually sent to St. James Palace, where they are exhibited to the public, a charge of a shilling being made to view them, and the money so realized is given to charity.

Air Liners From Ottawa To Chicago

TORONTO, March 21.—An immense all-metal monoplane with a wing spread of 52 feet reached Toronto yesterday from Detroit, the forerunner, it is declared, of a regularly scheduled passenger and package service between Chicago, Detroit and Toronto and Ottawa.

Five men, Pilot Eddie Stinson, Arthur Gray, mechanic, and J. R. Foley and Melvin E. Dare, and Peter A. Simon, pilots, came with the huge machine.

It is owned by International Airways, Limited, which is developing plans for a regular air service.

Under the schedule Detroit and Ottawa will be only two hours distant from Toronto, while it will be possible to reach Chicago in five hours. Toronto is to be the base of operations.

The machines will have a passenger-carrying capacity of twelve, or 4,000 pounds of freight.

The Doby sailed from Liverpool for this port on the 29th ult.

ST. JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND, TUESDAY, APRIL 10th, 1923.

DRAGON OF TORYISM DOOMED

On April 23, we celebrate the triumph of St. George who killed the Dragon. On that date, in this year of 1923, the 36 candidates of Sir Richard A. Squires will be nominated. They are out to stay for ever the Dragon of Toryism, as represented in the Cashin-Crosbie-Bennett Tory Merchant Party, and the votes of the people on May 3 will doom that many-headed monster to political oblivion.

HOW CAN WE ELECT TORY GRAFTERS?

The exposures of Tory Grabs will continue. On Saturday Crosbie's grab for Coastal Contracts showed $468,095.59 flowing into the coffers of his Companies. To-day shows that Coal Supplies to the Government brought $342,959.61 to John C. Crosbie. That is a total in these two accounts of $811,055.20. There is more to come, and the country will find out what a patriot Sir John C. Crosbie was and what he took out of the Public Chest.

Moore & Co.'s grab is only $209,156.95. These are the men who now want to get back to power. As the men of Conception Bay say: "Do you think we are fools enough to put back in power the same Tory grafters we kicked out in 1919?"

CROSBIE'S MILLIONS! And the country bleeding!

The country is finished with the Cashin-Bennett-Crosbie bunch of Tory grabbals.

THE HUMBER GETS ON THEIR NERVES

One day opposing the Humber, another day condemning it, another day saying it is no good and only a side-line, another day saying it, the Cashin Tories are making it very difficult for their supporters to know just where they are in connection with the great Humber Industry. In fact the Tories now say Squires has no right in any policy!

The Humber is a Squires Policy and he is asking the electorate if he is to go ahead and bring these millions in labour to the country or not. It is not like the Cashin-Morine stunt of passing a bill through the House without asking the people about it, and even against their wishes. The Opposition are making themselves the laughing stock of the country in their efforts to rob Squires of this Humber Project.

The handwriting is on the wall for the Tories AND THEY KNOW IT!

They know to-day that Squires is coming back. The news of the past few days from Conception Bay tells of an overwhelming victory for Squires and plenty of work and increased wages.

TORY RUM

I see that The Daily News is again trying its game of camouflaged temperance, and holds its hands up in holy horror because the editor saw a drunken man. Why does not the editor get hold of the drunk and hail him before the court and get a conviction under the Prohibition Act? He wants to blame every script on Dr. Campbell, but I am willing to bet that it will not be Dr. Campbell's script that the man used. There are others who are glad to hide behind Dr. Campbell and let him take the blame of all. As a prohibitionist I want to say right here, that I'd rather trust Squires in the matter than Bennett. I would trust Coaker before Cashin, when it comes to a liquor question; I would trust Halford before Crosbie, and Cave before Walsh and Barnes before Higgins; I would trust a Hibbs, a Winsor, an Abbott, or a Jones on this question before a Sinnott, a Vinnicombe, a Fox or a Woodford.

Let temperance advocates think it over and ask themselves if they could hope for anything from the Cashin-Bennett-Higgins-Crosbie party. A promise in this matter from anyone in the Opposition is not worth anything. Let's hope we have prohibitionists. PROHIBITIONIST.

DETAILS TO-MORROW!

The Morine Candidates Greater Support For Bonavista

The Telegram announced yesterday that the Cashin Tory candidates for Bonavista would be Mr. W. S. Monroe, Capt. Wm. Winsor, and Mr. Lewis Little. That paper also said that they represented more than anything else, the Morine-Jesse Winsor movement. Thus is Morine's little game come to light. Cashin told Morine to keep dark and now gets him to send three men to Bonavista. We leave the poor Tory candidates to their fate. It is said that Mr. Walter Monroe made it plain that if he went to a district at all, it would be to one where he would be deflated, as he did not want to be bothered with the care of a district, and have fishermen approaching him all the time. He will get his wish and will emulate his great friend Morine's effort in 1919, and come out of the fray at the bottom of the poll. The Tory team will certainly not worry Mr. Coaker any!

EYE OPENER TO CONCEPTION BAY ELECTORS

(Special to The Advocate)

BONAVISTA, April 9.—I wish to clearly state to all Conception Bay electors that the message published in the Telegram April 2nd, together with the confirmation, is wholly false.

I belong to Conception Bay, I was present at Mr. Coaker's meeting. Mr. Coaker stated he knew of instances at the last election where politicians sent out $10 bills in envelopes the day before the election. Mr. Coaker further stated he trusted that bribery of this nature would not be tolerated, either in Conception Bay or any other Bay the coming election. Any other statement which has been made may be printed is wholly false and untrue.

ONE PRESENT.

Trial Next Monday

A true bill for rape was found by the Grand Jury against John Humby yesterday afternoon. This morning he was arraigned before Chief Justice Horwood and pleaded "not guilty." The trial was set for next Monday, the 16th inst. Humby was not represented by counsel.

Greater Support Than Last Election

(Special to The Advocate)

SQUID TICKLE, via Salvage, April 6th.—A very enthusiastic public meeting was held here today by Messrs. Winsor and Abbott, when practically all the electors of Burnside, St. Chad's, and Hollett's Cove, assembled in the Orange Hall. The speakers were continually applauded and at the end ringing cheers were given for Coaker, Abbott and Winsor, and the industrial development of Newfoundland. We are confident that the Liberal Reform Party will receive a greater support than 1919.

Telegram Not Wanted

The proprietor of a grocery store on Casey Street who sells papers to his customers, reports a big falling off in the sale of the pink sheet during the past two weeks. Patrons of his store, when buying a paper, almost invariably ask for Squires' paper. Why this revulsion of feeling? The owner of the store was unable to explain. However it is a sure sign of the times, so far as St. John's West is concerned. Squires will win because he fed the people and gave them work, while Cashin wanted men sent to soup kitchens. Millions for ourselves, say the war knights, Cashin and Crosbie, but soup kitchens for the laborers of St. John's West and East. As for quitter Mr. Bennett, who runs away from St. John's West to Harbor Grace, thinking that the people over there are going to accept the leavings of the flag-enders not only as a candidate, but as a leader of a party, all need be said is, Well, Wait And See.

Rudder Damaged

The S. S. Daisy which grounded near Cape St. Mary's some time ago, is still at that place. When the ship went ashore she was damaged by contact with the rocks, while her rudder has been badly twisted, and it is expected that the ship will require some assistance to reach port. At present St. Mary's is blocked with ice and it will be some days before the ship will get clear.

FLAT ISLAND BACKS COAKER EVERY TIME

(Special to The Advocate)

FLAT ISLAND, April 9.—A splendid public meeting was held at Flat Islands Saturday night. The hall was filled and almost every voter present. Mr. Joseph Ralph presided over the meeting. The three Liberal candidates were tendered a splendid reception and for three hours the audience of whom half were standing, listened with close attention to the speakers. Mr. Coaker spoke for two hours and delivered a splendid old time speech, excelling all former efforts here. He spoke on fish regulations and industrial development. 80 per cent. of voters here will stand by Coaker, Abbott and Winsor on election day. Mr. Coaker arrived here to-day by the F. P. U. Union from Salvage and left for Port Union after the meeting. Messrs. Winsor and Abbott will visit Deer Island and Gooseberry Island on Monday and meet Mr. Coaker on Tuesday. Meetings the past week were addressed at Broad Cove, Knight's Cove, King's Cove, Keels, Salvage Bay, Happy Adventure, Squid Tickle, Salvage and Flat Island. The big bulk of the votes in the above area will be cast for the Government candidates.

BOYD'S COVE ACCLAIMS THE LIBERAL TEAM

(Special to The Advocate)

BOYD'S COVE, April 9.—The Govt. Candidates for the District, Dr. Barnes, Capt. Jones and Mr. Brown, arrived here from Herring Neck on Friday in the teeth of a blinding snowstorm. Loud volleys of musketry and a liberal display. In the evening a splendid meeting which filled the building to capacity, was held in the Anglican schoolhouse. Capt. George Jones, veteran Green Bay fishkiller, was the first to speak. A hearty ovation greeted his rising. He dealt chiefly with the fishery outlook, the cause of the low price prevailing last fall and the future. Mr. Edmund Brown was the next speaker. He outlined the evils of unemployment and their immediate remedy, namely: the Government's wonderful industrial development enterprise on the Humber. This was the greatest labor giving proposition ever known in Newfoundland. Squires and Coaker were the originators and promoters. He exposed the often hypocrisy of the Tories who, after viciously assailing the Humber Deal, and roundly denouncing it from press and platform, have made within the past few days such a right-about turn on the question. Regarding the employment scheme as the main issue of this election, they virtually admitted their mistake and, making an astounding volte face, at the eleventh hour, now sponsor the Humber with a ready shout. Dr. Barnes was the last speaker of the evening. Unlike the canned speeches of many Opposition candidates, which sometimes are nothing but a rhapsody or sickening platitudes culled from the pages of the Daily News and the "Pink Lady", was a masterly discourse. He handled the taxation question in fine fashion. Its incidence, he contended, was fair and just. The after-war period brought with it such an economic disaster and general dislocation of trade that in many countries, both victors and vanquished alike, millions died of starvation and other millions are living to-day in squalor and misery. This country could not well hope to escape the effects of such universal economic disorder. Then, too, there was the big war debt which the present Government had to pay off. Still the Opposition, to deceive themselves, are striving to saddle the Squires Government with responsibility for the present distressful times. Unfortunately there are a few everywhere who will swallow this Tory stuff, wool and hoof. The intelligent majority will understand it was due to the energy and statesmanship of the Premier and the ceaseless efforts of W. F. Coaker for the uplift of the plain, work-a-day man that our country came thru the ordeal so well as it did. When polling day comes, the North will again, as it did three and a half years ago, hand the reins of the Humber to the frozen mill.

THREE SURE FOR SQUIRES

ROMA, BONDON AND BROWN THE POPULAR CANDIDATES IN THE DISTRICT OF PLACENTIA

CUSLETT, Via Branches, April 9.—Bonia, Bondon and Browne are continuing their most successful canvass along the Capeshore, being greeted with flags flying and guns firing. The Cape Shore is solid for the three Government candidates this time, and it is no use for Walsh, Sullivan, or Sinnott or anyone connected with the Merchant's Party to come along this way. Everyone is determined that the Fishermen's Government and the Humber Deal are going to win.

"I Was Terribly Weak After Baby Was Born"

Mrs. H. McClure, Newwood, Ont., writes:

"After my baby was born, I was terribly weak and run down, with pains across my back. I had heard so much of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food that I decided to try it. Three boxes proved enough to make me quite strong and well again. I also used Dr. Chase's Ointment for a rash which broke out on the baby, and the rash disappeared completely in a short time."

A WORKER'S TRIBUTE

(Editor Evening Advocate)

Dear Sir—The enclosed is a copy of a letter I have sent the Evening Telegram for publication. Kindly give it space in your esteemed paper.

"Editor Evening Telegram—Your issue of a few days ago contained an article regarding the Reids and their treatment of employees, which was a gross misstatement of facts. The undersigned is only one of many Newfoundlanders who have worked for three generations of the Reid family, a service covering a period of over seventy years, and it is only a fair guess that, if we had not received proper treatment, we should not have stayed so long.

Most of us have been making a fairly good living before we entered the service; and no doubt could have kept on doing so if we had never heard of the Reids; so it was not sheer misery that drove us to the Reid employ, nor the fear of that kept us there.

Your own experience must have shown you that there are men whom even when working for himself it is impossible to satisfy; and that man must work overtime—not always for the benefit of employer or employee, but to satisfy an exacting customer or client—in our case a very exacting public, of which the daily press is the very efficient mouthpiece. Even then, I feel sure, that in every case where an employee received unfair treatment the offender was another Newfoundland "dressed in a little brief authority." The heads of departments have, with one or two exceptions, been gentlemen—when they were not they did not last long.

Your assertions are largely discounted by the fact that, in every election for the past thirty years, the "menace of the Reids" has been considered "good stuff" to fool some of the people. Even in the House when a member had no other line of "dope" to hand to the gods in the gallery, he always felt safe in abusing the Reids (particularly if his annual pass has not been promptly renewed). But such stuff does not fool the great number of intelligent men who, for the best years of a lifetime have been drawing a fair day's pay for a fair day's work, from this much abused corporation. On the contrary, it often misses more than it hits, if you get what I mean. Even in politics there should be some application of the statutes of limitations, and even the devil should get his due.

This is not political propaganda, but merely the unbiased protest of an old employee, who would feel mean if he sat back and listened to anyone "knocking the outfit" without registering disapproval.

A FORTNIGHT'S RESPIRE

Constantinople, April 7.—On Saturday another fortnight's respite from enforcement of prohibition has been proclaimed. The suspicion is gaining ground that enforcement will never actually be applied in Constantinople.

STRIKES IN Gt. BRITAIN

London, April 7.—It is estimated that in Great Britain at the present time there are nearly seven hundred thousand workers involved in disputes with their employers, and that some ninety-six thousand are already on strike. These include Welsh miners and Norfolk farm workers.

THE TURKS REPLY

Constantinople, April 8.—The Turks' reply to the allied invitation for a resumption of the Near-East conference at Lausanne arrived at Constantinople to-day from Angora. It is understood the note conveys acceptance with reservations on certain of the allied proposals.

FIGHTING IN IRELAND

Belfast, April 8.—Nine republicans were killed in a running fight with Free State troops at Glengar, County Kerry, Friday, it is announced in an official announcement. The troops surrounded a house in which the republicans were hiding and put them to flight. The government forces suffered no casualties.

OIL STOCK PROMOTERS

Washington, April 7.—Oil stock promoters, operating in Texas during the past five years, have fished more than one hundred million dollars from the public. Postmaster New was advised to-day by John H. Edwards, solicitor of the post office department and chief postal inspector Simmons, who are in North Worth, co-operating with the department of justice.

Badger's Quay and Valleyfield in the Fight Against Tories

Editor Evening Advocate.

Dear Sir,—Will you kindly grant me space in your much read paper to make a few remarks. The Union here is growing stronger and we are waiting and longing for the time to come when we will be able to mark our X for our three candidates. The Tories won't get a look in on this side of the bay. Everyone here is right out for the present Government because they see what the Tory crowd are trying to do. They are doing nothing, only talking. Talking and doing are two different things. Bonavista Bay will return the Liberal Party with a bigger majority than in 1919. Who are the people going to return to power better than the Squires party. I say no one. Never in history has a Government accomplished what this one has. Everyone knows or should know that the reason we are depressed so is on account of the great war that waged; every country in the world is suffering from the effect of the war. But, Mr. Editor, if we want labor, if we want more industry brought in the country, let every fisherman fall in line with Squires and his party. There's the Humber project. Where's the man who wouldn't be for that? That's all we Newfoundlanders want. WORK. If the country had been opened up years ago it would have been a far better country to live in than it is today. Mr. Coaker has been working tooth and nail to get labor for

Inspection Regulations

The boilers of every steamer registered in the Colony shall be subject to annual inspection by the Inspector.

All persons removing boilers or installing second-hand boilers for any purpose, to work under steam pressure, shall notify the Minister of Marine and Fisheries as to the new locality in which they are to be installed, and shall not work such boilers until they have been inspected.

Every steamer carrying local crews or passengers to or from this Colony, or to or from any ports therein, shall be subject to annual inspection.

All persons installing new boilers for any purpose to work under steam pressure shall notify the Minister of Marine and Fisheries, in writing, as to the locality of said boilers.

The Inspector shall grant a certificate of inspection for every boiler which shall be approved by him. The certificate shall be displayed in a prominent place in the vicinity of the boiler to which it refers.

Inspection Fees

When a boiler is not in good condition, and the Inspector has granted a certificate for a period less than twelve months, the fee for each extra inspection during the twelve months shall be the extra inspection fee of that class.

For any special visit to be made by the Inspector, other than the annual inspection or for any special inspection made at the request of the owner or manager of a boiler, the owner shall pay the expenses incurred by inspection from St. John's to location of boiler and return, subject to approval of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries.

Mode of Inspection

Notice of alterations or additions to any boiler should be given to the Inspector, in writing, for his approval, before proceeding with the work.

Every boiler made after the coming into force of these Regulations shall be stamped with the initial letters of the Inspector's name who inspected it and was tested; also the actual working pressure allowed on it.

COAKER HAS TO GO FOR CHEERING TO Thunderous Applause for the Government

(Special to The Advocate)
SALVAGE, April 7.—Salvage last night had the pleasure of hearing the addresses of the three Government candidates. The Union hall was packed and Mr. John W. Dyke occupied the chair. Mr. Abbott spoke for half an hour, delivering a splendid speech. Mr. Winsor spoke for three quarters of an hour and was repeatedly applauded. Cheers were given the speakers as they resumed their seats. Mr. Coaker spoke for two hours, delivering the best oration he ever delivered here. He was applauded and cheered during his address so insistently that he asked the audience to desist in order to permit him to continue his address. Thunderous applause and cheering were given as he took his seat, the audience asking him to continue longer. Salvage, with Salvage Bay, Happy Adventure and Sandy Cove will cast an average vote of 75 per cent. in favor of their old tried and true candidates. This was the second public meeting held yesterday by the Government candidates. They are visiting St. Brendan's and Flat Island to-day. The Squires Government will be returned with a sweeping majority. We challenge any fair minded man to contradict this statement. Wait and see.

LARGE NUMBERS ON MR. GRACE LIB. COMMITTEE

Harbor Grace, April 10.—(Special to the Advocate)—A large number of voters were present at the Liberal club rooms, Water Street, last night, to welcome our candidate, Mr. Calpin on his first visit here. The regular committee rooms in Coughlan Hall were not available owing to the Sons of England monthly meeting, consequently the rooms were crowded. In a short address Mr. Simmons introduced his colleague Mr. Calpin, who then addressed the meeting and in a common sense and manly speech satisfied every voter present that in Mr. Calpin the district will have a man who can be depended upon to hold to his party and to do his best for his country and his district.

Mr. Simmons, in closing the meeting, referred at length to fishery conditions and export of that product, showing to the meeting how difficulties were very often put in one way by certain fish exporters to hamper new men in the trade, resulting in the end to the fishermen's disadvantage. Mr. Simmons announced that Messrs. Piccott, Calpin and himself would meet all members of the general committee now numbering about three hundred, in the large room Tuesday night.

Piccott, Calpin and Simmons will be elected. The people want Squires, the Humber and prosperity.

OBITUARY

MRS. MARY DARCY

There passed away at Kilbride, on Sunday morning, after a tedious illness fortified by the rites of Holy Church, Mary, the beloved wife of Michael Darcy. The deceased lady who was previous to her marriage Miss Mary Tobin, of Mount Pearl, possessed a most affable disposition and kindness of heart that earned for her the highest esteem of all with whom she came in contact. She took a prominent interest in all social events of the Parish, being prominently identified with the ladies' committee of the new Church Fund, and from the beginning was a most earnest worker. She leaves to mourn her a husband, mother, three sisters and one brother, and a host of friends. Her funeral takes place this afternoon at 2:30 p.m. Interment at Kilbride. May she rest in peace.

Carbonear to Witness Biggest Victory for the Veteran Liberal

CARBONEAR, April 9.—(By Telephone)—The Liberal supporters of Carbonear turned out in a most earnest to-night and opened campaign to return the Squires candidates, Mr. Maddock, and support the Humber proposition. The meeting was called to order by one of the old Liberal guard, Mr. S. B. Pike, after which it was moved by Mr. Will Clarke, the progressive and rising firm of Messrs. R. & W. Clarke, Victoria, attended by Mr. W. J. McCarthy, our prosperous tailor, and endorsed by Mr. E. G. Saunders, that Mr. John Duff be appointed Chairman. Mr. Duff is of the firm of Duff & Sons. It is the fourth occasion in which Mr. Duff has occupied a similar capacity. Proposed by Mr. E. E. Pike, one of our progressive business men, seconded by Mr. James Garland, master cooper, that Mr. W. P. Finn, another young business man, be appointed secretary. It was proposed by Mr. Philip Saunders, seconded by Mr. G. F. Shea, an old staunch Liberal, endorsed by Mr. Percy Taylor, Bristol's hope, that this meeting endorse the candidature of Mr. Joseph Guy Maddock for this District of Carbonear, who has been returned on three successive occasions as the Liberal representative.

The Chairman then called on Mr. Maddock to address the gathering and in a short spirited speech he thanked the Committee and the Liberal supporters for the confidence placed in him in selecting him as their representative. He explained the policy of the Government, made it perfectly clear that the country has entered the corner of depression and now started on the road to prosperity. Mr. S. B. Pike then spoke and made a forcible convincing and clear address favouring the industrial policy of the Government and scathingly denounced the undignified attitude of the Opposition. Mr. George Peckham, Mr. M. Clarke, and Nix Powell, of the firm of N. Powell & Sons, Victoria, Percy Taylor of Bristol's Hope and others gave short addresses which were heartily applauded. 136 persons enrolled as a working committee.

Cheers were given for Sir Richard Squires, the candidate and the chairman. It was conceded by all present that never before in the history of this historic town was a campaign started under more favorable auspices.

W. B. FINN, Secretary.

How Cashin Would Treat Political Foe

FERRYLAND, April 4.—(By Telephone)—Cashin and Bennett's two candidates for Ferryland District held a meeting here last night in the hall. Mr. Editor, it is the same old story fish regulation and the latest Humber Deal. Sir M. P. told up about all the money Mr. Hearn got to come to this district. He said Mr. Hearn was bought and paid for to do so. Sir M. P. was telling us the way to treat Mr. Hearn, when he comes up here, we should sand-bag Mr. Hearn when he would come up here, Sir M. P. said the country was on the rocks now. The country was on the rocks in 1919 when Sir M. P. sold about of her and took public money and scattered it along the shore to his heels. Come on, Mr. Hearn, we are going to put you there this time and you will have the chance to sand-bag the Tories.

West End Committee Reports Triumphant Progress Candidates Deliver Stirring Addresses

There was a capacity audience at the West End Committee Rooms last night to hear the report of Committee men and rattling speeches by the Prime Minister and his colleagues, Hon. Dr. Campbell and Mr. Joe Fitzgibbon were made. A notable feature in last night's meeting was the number of new faces present. Men who had cut loose from the influences of Toryism, have heard the call as patriotic Newfoundlanders and are now prepared to support Squires and his government with all their might. The gravity of the issue which confronts the country was outlined by the Prime Minister in a speech which opened the eyes of his hearers, on the menace of Water Street in its attempt to pack the legislature with Tory breed which in the past has bled white the fishermen of the country.

Nobody who heard Sir Richard Squires last night can have any doubt left on his mind as to the intentions of the scions of noble families who are associating themselves with Cashin, Crosbie and Bennett in a desperate attempt to throttle the independence of the electorate, kill the industrial policy which Sir Richard Squires has inaugurated, and put our country on the road to being a Crown Colony, to which status the latest addition to the Tory list of candidates, Mr. Walter Monroe, said is the proper place for us Newfoundlanders to revert.

The Prime Minister gave some plain facts as to what the Ayres and Monroes stood for in the political life of the colony. The conspiracy of Water Street to enslave the common people was clearly indicated. The threat of dismissal from employment for those who refused to accept the yoke of Cashin and Crosbie was being freely used those days along the street. "But," said Sir Richard, "Fear not, ye sturdy sons. These task masters may threaten, but they dare not execute. The dawn of commercial and political freedom is with us. Your yes to my policy of industrial development spells prosperity for all the people, and the insolent, arrogant and soulless bunch of grabbers who to-day are using the coercive methods on the free and independent electors of this country will to-morrow or after May 3rd, be chastened by the voice of the people which shall be heard North, South and West, proclaiming victory for Squires and progress."

Sir Richard took occasion to again point out the policy of deception which Bennett's followers were practicing re the Humber Proposition, and made it clear that the present Humber Development can only be proceeded with immediately in the event of his party being returned. If he was not elected then immediately thereafter the initial work now being carried on would stop, and stagnation would prevail. The present poor times would become still more aggravated. There was method in the madness of the present Opposition when they professed to support the Humber Deal. They realized that there was no other way by which they could delude the toilers than to profess their support which until now they had damned and decided at every turn. However, the only answer to all this propaganda was vote YES for Squires, Campbell and Fitzgibbon and the wheels of industry will hum. Vote NO, then the Squires government notifies the British Government and the Trade Facilities Board of Great Britain that the answer of the people to Britain's generous offer has been "We do not want your assistance," and there will be no Humber. Dr. Campbell and Mr. Fitzgibbon gave detailed accounts of the day's canvass. Cashin and Co. were now chasing the Liberal candidates thru the district, but in the parlance of the sea, a stern chase is a long one, and day by day the Tory team, Cashin, Hunt and Linegar were dropping behind; by polling day they will be out of sight. St. John's West is going to return the men who gave the people bread and work during the hard times.

POLICE COURT

A stoker and a Norwegian engineer were $2.00 or 7 days each. Four boys, all under the age of 15, were before Judge Morris, charged with larceny. They entered the dry goods store of Mr. Thos. Barron, Water Street West, on the 8th inst., and got away with $3.50 in cash, 4 pipes, gent's ties and other goods, to the value of $9.50. The same band of young thieves on the 4th inst. stole $1.80 from the West End Meat Store. The two older boys were sentenced to six lashes and the younger boys were considered too young to whip, and they were sent home to be dealt with by their parents.

Millionaire Party!

(Special to the Advocate.) FLEUR DE LYS, April 9.—A few words about the meeting held here by the Tory heels, Roberts and Andrews on Monday night. Roberts spoke for about fifteen minutes. He said they were the fishermen's delegates and their party was the only one to elect as they had millionaires, such as Sir M. P. Cashin and Sir John Crosbie, on their side, who would invest their money for the development of the Humber and other industries of the country. Our chairman spoke and asked them what party they represented. They said the united party. The chairman said: "No, but you are the Jesse Wmsor and Morline bunch. Mr. Andrews then spoke and said Coaker was no good and a lot of other trash. The meeting closed with ringing cheers for the Liberal Government and Mr. Seammell. UNION FOREVER.

BAY ROBERTS ENTHUSIASTIC

SPLENDID MEETING THERE ON SATURDAY NIGHT—THREE MEN FOR SQUIRES GOVT.

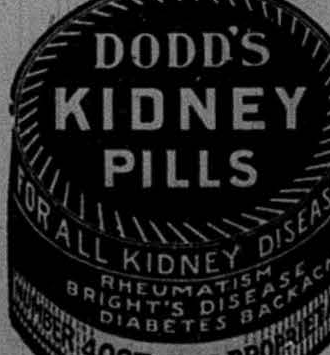

BAY ROBERTS, April 9.—An ordinary unadvertised gathering at the Government Committee Rooms on Saturday night, developed into a spontaneous demonstration of support for Government candidates. The Committee Hall was filled with 200 or more voters. A. M. Caplin took the opportunity to organize an active committee, of which Captain John Parsons was elected chairman. Mr. George Thompson, vice chairman, Mr. M. Sparkes, secretary. The meeting was addressed by the chairman, vice-chairman, Messrs. Calpin and G. E. Russell. The feeling in favor of Government and industrial development, which had been previously very strong, is increasing enormously the last few days. At present Bay Roberts and vicinity, at a very conservative estimate, is 75 per cent. with the Govt. Every prominent citizen is with us. The meeting closed with cheers for the Government and local candidates. Sectional committees will be appointed on Monday night.

4087 THE PRO...

BIG BEVERLY BILL

If the Board of Trade wants to know why it meets with criticism, it must look to its own members for the answer. If it wants to be considered a big factor in our commercial life, it will have to drop like a thousand of bricks on the heads of some of its members who are so "small" that they bring their petty political prejudices into everything they are connected with.

For instance, one W. A. Munn, famous in many ways, is a convener of a committee of the Board of Trade which approached the government with suggestions for the encouragement of a certain industry. What does the brave "Bill" do but to make up a political document of it, and with no authority from any of the firms concerned, uses their names to hang his petty spite of the government upon, and circulates his manifesto through the country. If the Board of Trade will stand for this political propaganda, then it cannot very well get angry if its feelings are hurt now and again. The Board of Trade ought to know enough to keep out of politics. If it wishes to run as a political machine, let it go right to it. One of the greatest assets to any party would be the antagonism of the Board of Trade, so much of which is representative of the Tory-Merchant party, which now seeks by threats of no supplies, to gain control of the legislature.

LIBERAL RALLY AT ST. BRIDE'S

GOVERNMENT CANDIDATES ENTHUSIASTICALLY WELCOMED BY VOTERS OF SETTLEMENT.

BRANCHE, April 7.—The three Government candidates, Bonia, Bindon and Browne, held a most enthusiastic meeting at St. Bride's. Capt. Bonia has been greeted all along the shore by hundreds of old friends. Messrs. Bindon and Browne have won the hearts of all the young voters, and the policy of the Humber Deal was heartily welcomed by the people of St. Bride's. All the fishermen have been complaining about the tactics of the merchants, particularly Monroe, and none of them has any chance around here.

MR. BENNETT "STIRRED"

A telephone message from Harbor Grace to the Daily News last night conveyed the startling intelligence that Mr. Bennett, the Cashin candidate for that district, was "stirred" on his arrival. It is not often that this happens to Mr. Bennett, and if there is any truth in the adage that coming events cast their shadows before, may we be prepared for a prediction that on polling day Mr. Bennett will be "moved" to tears.
